

National Institute of Aging Alzheimer's Disease Family Based Study (NIA-AD FBS)

PURPOSE OF THE STUDY

To discover factors and genes associated with Alzheimer's Disease and related disorders in extended families and the general population.

ELIGIBILITY

- You are a part of a family willing to participate OR you have a family history of dementia.
- You have a study partner who can provide information throughout the study.

STUDY ACTIVITIES

- Blood Draw
- Neurological Exam
- Cognitive Testing
- Previous Risk Factors Interview
- Psychiatric Interview

COMPENSATION

- You and your study partner will each receive $100 every time you visit.
- Travel, parking, and food will be covered by the study.

INTERESTED?

If interested in participating, please contact

Kate Cassiano

Email: kcassiano@mednet.ucla.edu

Phone: (310).206.1822

